Gallery and Tours

Add an immersive art and culture experience to your visit to Pātaka with an expert guided tour of our art and/or cultural history exhibitions. Art exhibitions change every 4 months and there are usually 3 different shows to see at any one time. Tours lead by our professional curators can be tailored in length and content to fit the specific interests of your group.

Cultural history tours of Whiti te Rā! – the story of Ngāti Toa Rangatira are led by our Ngāti Toa guide who is a direct descendant of the great Chief Te Rauparaha and can be presented in te reo Māori or English.

Tours can take 30 minutes, 45 minutes or an hour depending on the content and are limited to a maximum of 30 people.

Available from 10am to 4pm Monday to Friday but must be booked at least 4 weeks in advance.

Rates

Corporate: $10 per person

Community: $5 per person

JOIN THE PĀTAKA FOUNDATION

We are offering you the opportunity to partner with Pātaka Art + Museum by joining the Pātaka Foundation.

If you share our belief in the power of art to make a real difference to peoples' lives, help Pātaka build on its ambitious exhibition programme by making funds available for special projects that would not otherwise be possible within our operating budget.

As a member of the Pātaka Foundation you will enjoy:

- Privileged access to exhibitions and events including private curator's tours.
- Artist studio visits and commercial gallery viewings.
- Networking opportunities with like-minded people, co-partners and other Pātaka stakeholder groups.

For Pātaka Foundation information and donation enquiries contact us at: www.patakafoundation.org.nz
